

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR PREVENTION OF INSIDER TRADING

1. THE POLICY AND OBLIGATIONS:

Insider trading means trading in securities of a company by its Directors, Designated Persons or other Insiders based on unpublished price sensitive information. Such trading by Insiders erodes the investors' confidence in the integrity of the management and is unhealthy for the capital markets.

The Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI), in its endeavor to protect the interests of investors in general, had formulated the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 (Regulations) under the powers conferred on it under the SEBI Act, 1992. These regulations came into force with effect from 22th May, 2015 i.e. from the date of its publication in the official Gazette and the same is applicable to all listed companies.

As per the notified Code, every director, officer, designated employee has a duty to safeguard the confidentiality of all such information obtained in the course of his or her work at the Company. No director, officer, designated employee may use his or her position or knowledge of the Company to gain personal benefit or to provide benefit to any third party.

2. APPLICABILITY OF THE CODE:

This self regulated Code is applicable to all the designated employees of the Company, the subsidiaries and associates of the Company to maintain highest standards while trading in the securities of the Company.

The Company endeavors to preserve the confidentiality of unpublished price sensitive information and to prevent misuse of such information. The Company is committed to transparency and fairness in dealing with all stakeholders and in ensuring adherence to all laws and regulations.

- c. The Company Secretary shall assist all employees in addressing any clarifications regarding the Securities & Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 and the Company's Internal Code of Conduct.

5. PRESERVATION OF "PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION":

- a. All information shall be handled within the Company on a need to know basis and no unpublished price sensitive information shall be communicated to any person except in furtherance of the insider's legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of his legal obligations.
- b. Unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction which entails:
 - an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company; or
 - not attracting the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board of Directors may determine.

- However, the Board of Directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the limited purpose and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.
- c. Need to Know:
 - (i) “need to know” basis means that Unpublished Price Sensitive Information should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appearance of misuse of the information.
 - (ii) All non-public information directly received by any employee should immediately be reported to the head of the department.
- d. Limited access to confidential information:
Files containing confidential information shall be kept secure. Computer files must have adequate security of login and password, etc.

6. PREVENTION OF MISUSE OF “UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION”:

Employees and connected persons designated on the basis of their functional role ("designated persons") in the Company shall be governed by an internal code of conduct governing dealing in securities.

- a. Trading Plan:
An insider shall formulate a trading plan for dealing in securities of the Company and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.
- b. Trading Plan shall:
 - (i) not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;
 - (ii) not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the issuer of the securities and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
 - (iii) entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;
 - (iv) not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
 - (v) set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and

- (vi) not entail trading in securities for market abuse.
- c. The Compliance Officer shall consider the Trading Plan made as above and shall approve it forthwith. However, he shall be entitled to take express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan as per provisions of the Regulations.
- d. The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.
- e. However, the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced, if at the time of formulation of the plan, the Insider is in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information and the said information has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation. The commencement of the Plan shall be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information. Further, the Insider shall also not be allowed to deal in securities of the Company, if the date of trading in securities of the Company, as per the approved Trading Plan, coincides with the date of closure of Trading Window announced by the Compliance Officer.
- f. Upon approval of the trading plan, the compliance officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed

7. CHINESE WALLS:

Powerful Technologies Limited has established policies, procedures and physical arrangements (collectively 'Chinese Walls') designed to manage confidential information and prevent the inadvertent spread and misuse of inside information, or the appearance thereof. Management shall understand where Chinese Walls have been set up or where they are needed according to this policy or local requirements.

In general, Chinese Walls separate areas that have access to Inside Information ("Insider Areas") from those who do not have such access ("Public Areas"). As such, Chinese Walls are designed to operate as barriers to the passing of Inside Information (Unpublished Price Sensitive Information) and confidential information. Chinese Walls are also designed as a means of managing conflicts of interest.

Where Chinese Walls arrangements are in place directors/employees/designated persons working within an insider area are prohibited from communicating any confidential or inside information to employees in public areas without the prior approval of the Compliance Officer.

Employees within a Chinese wall have a responsibility to ensure the Chinese Wall is not breached deliberately or inadvertently. Known or suspected breaches of the Chinese Wall must be referred to the local Compliance Officer immediately.

Management shall ensure that appropriate policies, procedures and physical arrangements are implemented for the relevant businesses and that these are complied by all affected employees/designated persons.

The establishment of Chinese Walls is not intended to suggest that within Insider Areas material, Confidential Information can circulate freely. Within Insider Areas, the 'need-to-know' policy is fully in effect.

Procedure to Cross the wall:

Any person, who needs to cross the Chinese Walls as defined in the organization by the Management, shall first seek a prior approval of his departmental head for crossing such wall and having an access or providing an access to such confidential information which do not come under his area of operation.

8. TRADING WINDOW:

- a. The Compliance Officer shall intimate the closure of trading window to all the directors/officer/designated employees of the Company when he/she determines that a designated person or class of designated persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such securities to which such unpublished price sensitive information relates.
- b. The Compliance Officer after taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, shall decide the timing for re-opening of the trading window, however in any event it shall not be earlier than forty-eight hours after the information becomes generally available.
- c. The trading window shall also be applicable to any person having contractual or fiduciary relation with the Company, such as auditors, accountancy firms, law firms, analysts, consultants etc., assisting or advising the Company.

9. PRE-CLEARANCE OF TRADE:

All Specified Persons and their dependents, who intend to deal in the securities of the Company when the trading window is opened and if the value of the proposed trades is Rs. 10 lacs and above should pre-clear the transaction. However, no designated person shall be entitled to apply for pre-clearance of any proposed trade if such designated person is in possession of unpublished price sensitive information even if the trading window is not closed. The pre-dealing procedure shall be hereunder:

- (i) An application may be made in the prescribed Form 1 to the Compliance officer indicating the estimated number of securities that the Specified Employee intends to deal in, the details as to the depository with which he has a security account, the details as to the securities in such depository mode and such other details as may be required by any rule made by the company in this behalf.
- (ii) An undertaking Form 2 shall be executed in favor of the Company by such Specified Employee incorporating, inter alia, the following clauses, as may be applicable:
 - (a) That the employee/director/officer does not have any access or has not received “Price Sensitive Information” up to the time of signing the undertaking.
 - (b) That in case the Specified Employee has access to or receives “Price Sensitive Information” after the signing of the undertaking but before the execution of the transaction he/she shall inform the Compliance Officer of the change in his position and that he/she would completely refrain from dealing in the securities of the Company till the time such information becomes public.
 - (c) That he/she has not contravened the code of conduct for prevention of insider trading as notified by the Company from time to time.
 - (d) That he/she has made a full and true disclosure in the matter.
- (iii) The Compliance Officer shall approve the pre-clearance of trade as per order specified in Form 3
- (iv) All Specified Persons and their dependents shall execute their order in respect of securities of the Company within one week after the approval of pre-clearance is given.
- (v) If the order is not executed within one week after the approval is given, the employee/director must pre-clear the transaction again.
- (vi) All Specified Persons who buy or sell any number of shares of the Company shall not enter into an opposite transaction i.e. sell or buy any number of shares during the next six months following the prior transaction. All Specified Persons shall also not take positions in derivative transactions in the shares of the Company at any time. In case of any contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI under the Act.

In case of subscription in the primary market (initial public offers), the above mentioned entities shall hold their investments for a minimum period of 30 days. The holding period would commence when the securities are actually allotted.

- (vii) The Compliance Officer may waive off the holding period in case of sale of securities in personal emergency after recording reasons for the same in Form 4. However, no such sale will be permitted when the Trading window is closed.

10. OTHER RESTRICTIONS:

- a. The disclosures to be made by any person under this Code shall include those relating to trading by such person's immediate relatives, and by any other person for whom such person takes trading decisions.
- b. The disclosures of trading in securities shall also include trading in derivatives of securities and the traded value of the derivatives shall be taken into account for purposes of this Code.
- c. The disclosures made under this Code shall be maintained for a period of five years.
